

Delhi Public School, Sector-4, Bokaro

Subject: cfcs

Class: 3rd year

Time Allowed: 30 minutes

Maximum Marks: 5

All questions are compulsory unless stated otherwise.

Name: _____

Roll Number: _____

Class: 3rd year

Section: _____

SECTION A: Multiple Choice Questions

Multiple Choice Questions

Attempt all questions in this section. Each question carries 1 mark(s).

1. A student encounters ethical hacking during a cfcs experiment. The MOST [1 Marks]
 - a) Apply the standard definition of ethical hacking to interpret the result
 - b) Ignore ethical hacking as it is not relevant to cfcs
 - c) Assume the experiment has failed
 - d) Replace ethical hacking with an unrelated variable

2. Which scientist or principle is MOST closely associated with the study of ethical [1 Marks]
 - a) Foundational researchers who established the theoretical basis of ethical hacking
 - b) Scientists who worked in completely unrelated fields
 - c) Modern engineers who have no connection to cfcs

3. A student encounters ethical hacking during a cfcs experiment. The MOST [1 Marks]
- a) Apply the standard definition of ethical hacking to interpret the result
 - b) Ignore ethical hacking as it is not relevant to cfcs
 - c) Assume the experiment has failed
 - d) Replace ethical hacking with an unrelated variable
4. Which scientist or principle is MOST closely associated with the study of ethical [1 Marks]
- a) Foundational researchers who established the theoretical basis of ethical hacking
 - b) Scientists who worked in completely unrelated fields
 - c) Modern engineers who have no connection to cfcs
 - d) None — ethical hacking has no established research history
5. A student encounters ethical hacking during a cfcs experiment. The MOST [1 Marks]
- a) Apply the standard definition of ethical hacking to interpret the result
 - b) Ignore ethical hacking as it is not relevant to cfcs
 - c) Assume the experiment has failed
 - d) Replace ethical hacking with an unrelated variable

End of Question Paper

Assignments

Groups

Logout